

THE LITTLE DONKEY

Third Sunday of Lent - Year A

Gospel for children
John 4:5-42

① Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down at the well. A woman of Samaria came to draw water.

② Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?"

③ Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."

④ The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water."

Can you help the Little Donkey, Jesus and Samaritan women to find the right ways to the well?

What Jesus mind when he said: "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life."

Dear readers,

We are a married couple; Jana and Jakub Kupkovi. We have created the simple magazine "The Little Donkey" for children, which shows the Sunday's Gospel in pictures and games. The pictures are also for colouring-in. We publish this magazine ready for every Sunday. All of the issues, current and previous, are available on the website www.littledonkey.eu. You may download or print them free of charge. The current issue is on the main page and we publish it every Wednesday evening. If you have any questions or comments, please write to us on: casopis@malyoslik.cz
